

DIDN'T FORESEE THEIR ARREST

Ten Fortune-Tellers in Court Who Failed to Read in the Future Capture for Taking Easy Money from Their Dupes

HOW THEY WALKED INTO POLICE TRAP.

Crystal Balls, Pinocchio Packs and Other Accessories of the Soothsayers' Art Described for Magistrate.

There was a sort of astronomical rough-house in the cerulean to-day when ten constellations received word that as many astrologers and crystal-ball manipulators who had been working them in the interest of mortals curious of the future had been arrested and charged with the heinous crime of fortune-telling.

A sensation was caused in astrological circles a few months ago by the bursting of six crystal balls. This news transpired at a meeting of the Star Dopers Union and caused consternation. Then Magistrate Zeller, the presiding star in the firmament, was seen acting strangely, as if on an empyrean bending. This startling fact caused grave apprehension among the members of the union, which was justified when it became known that an organized crusade had been begun against them.

Found It Was a Crime.

The crusaders published sensational stories about the astrologers, telling how they allowed men and women to come to them and pay them money for rifling a deck and being arrested and charged with the heinous crime of fortune-telling.

Tea Comes-Down with Warrants.

Ten detectives were forthwith equipped with warrants against the seers. In order to serve the warrants the detectives had to have their fortunes told. How this was done was related in the Yorkville Court to-day.

When Detective McCormick, of the East Fifty-first street station, arraigned Mrs. Julia Bennett, of No. 243 East Fifty-eighth street.

Detective McCormick said that he went to Mrs. Bennett's home last night. Mrs. Bennett was considerably agitated when he entered. Her crystal ball had turned over on one side and cracked along the middle.

"I would like to have my fortune told," said Detective McCormick.

Mrs. Bennett unconsciously looked at her feet and said, "You are a good walking, talking deal. If it wasn't that your hair was parted in the middle I would think you were a detective."

"Then, Mrs. Bennett, throw a black cloth over a cage containing a crow, turned a picture of the great and little bear and the pole star to the wall, set down at a small table and pulled out a deck of cards, McCormick cut the cards, whereupon Mrs. Bennett extracted the king of diamonds and said quickly:

"Called His Fortune Wrong.

"You have just received a large sum of money in a letter."

"Wrong," replied McCormick. "Some one is going to offer you money in a letter," said Mrs. Bennett. McCormick blushed. The seer drew the two of spades from the pack and turned pale.

"You are in love," continued the astrologer.

"I am married and have five children," replied McCormick.

"Certainly," responded Mrs. Bennett, complacently. "You love your wife and your home is happy and warm, however, it is going to be suddenly fifteen or twenty years from now. You will live to be eighty years, old and your hair will turn gray."

"Won't that be rather strange?" suggested the detective.

"No," returned the soothsayer, "it will fall out."

McCormick turned red and with some heat said, "Madame, you are under arrest."

A Magistrate Zeller had heard this evidence he placed Mrs. Bennett under $200 bond to keep the peace for two months.

Then Mrs. Lang, of No. 302 East Fifty-ninth street, was arraigned. She was charged by a man named Brown with being for his name and the name of his sweetheart, and offering to put them in a pot of tea and steam the hair.

She was also accused of suggesting that he wear a monkey foot around his neck as a charm.

Other soothsayers and astrologers and seers were brought into court on similar charges. One was accused by Detective Gargan of telling his fortune with a pinocchio deck and suggesting that he wear a monkey foot. All were placed under bonds to keep the peace.

ICE IN THE BAY SLOWLY BREAKING

Ships Wedged in Floes and Packs See Hopes of Release, but the Ferries Are Not Yet Running on Schedule.

An improved state of affairs exists to-day in the river and harbor, now slowly being freed from the ice, which until now made traffic a matter of chance. The ice jam, which extended from Governor's Island to the Narrows, is being split up and washed out to sea.

Except for the Erie Basin and the South Brooklyn piers the ice is now penetrable to outgoing and incoming ships. The ferry-boat service is not yet running on schedule time, but undoubtedly will be resumed to-morrow.

There was a general breaking up of the vast stretch of ice after the snowstorm of yesterday, but the cold that followed immediately welded the cakes together again. The action of the sea to-day is given as the cause of the second breaking up of what was the greatest freezing over in thirty years.

The ship Juteopolis, which arrived in port Thursday from Hilo, five months overdue, and after a five-day delay outside the bar, only to be forced aground by ice on her way up the bay, again went aground to-day off Robbin's Reef. Several tugs went to her assistance.

The Dora, a German bark, bound for Blythe, France, left the dock at the foot of Nineteenth street, North River, to-day, but when she reached the Battery her Captain thought it futile to try to get through the ice field that confronted him. The ship is now at pier 10 East River.

The schooner O. H. Brown left the pier at Seventy-second street and North River bound for Florida. She made way to Robbin's Reef.

Many Vessels Helpless.

The Duncan, a tramp steamer, bound for the West Indies, is tied up in the Erie Basin. The Killarney, a bark bound for France, is anchorage outside the basin, fearing that she might get caught again as she was. As soon as a chance offers for sailing the Killarney will get under way.

The Manica, a steamer engaged in the South African and Australian trade was held twenty-four hours.

The ferry service on the East River has been crippled. All the small ferries have been having the hardest sort of a time trying to get through the floe, and many have had their wheels and propellers badly damaged.

The North River is free of ice to-day and the same conditions do not prevail there.

Staten Islanders Suffer.

Of all the sufferers the Staten Island traffickers have had the worst conditions of travel to contend with. The Robert Garrett and the Middleton are in dry-dock and will not be able to move to-day. It will probably be Tuesday next before they will be able to return to service. The three other boats on the Staten Island service are packed to the gunwales. The half-hour service was abandoned and one of an hour and a half substituted.

Two ferry-boats running between the Battery and the Thirtieth street ferry at South Brooklyn got caught in the ice to-day midway between New York and Brooklyn and were delayed several hours.

VIOLA ALLEN BETTER.

The Actress is Now on the Way to Complete Recovery.

Miss Viola Allen, the actress, who is ill at the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, following an operation on the mastoid bone, is said to be slowly improving, and her complete recovery is now assured.

It was reported to-day that the seriousness of the operation has not been generally understood. Miss Allen was for a time in a very precarious condition.

BIJOU OPENING DELAYED.

Mayor's Absence from City Postpones Performance.

"Much Ado About Nothing" was ready to open at the Bijou Theatre to-night under the management of Mr. Synney Rosenfeld, but as the Mayor is out of town the opening has been postponed.

Mr. H. B. Sire has complied with the law in making repairs to the theatre, and it is considered now by experts to be safe.

Friend of Mr. Sire and the Rosenfelds have been notified to see the dress rehearsal to-night.

LETTER THREATENS DRUGGIST'S LIFE

Dr. Herman, Whose Store Was Partly Burned by a Firebug, Informed that He Must Pay $1,000 on Pain of Death.

Dr. Israel Herman, a druggist, of No. 203 Osborn street, Brooklyn, has reported to the police that his life has been threatened by Italian blackmailers. Several days ago Dr. Herman received the following letter written in Italian:

"For the last time that we tell you both to bring the $1,000 at the point mentioned, and remember that you must use pass one night in the cold, that we had to wait for you people, but don't think that you have something to do with people just like yourself. If you don't come on Tuesday, the first of the month, the same place, same street and don't forget the signal; if you don't do as we say, you will lose your life."

The letter is signed, "Gentle Not." It was mailed Feb. 10, at Station G, No. 800 Manhattan avenue, Brooklyn. Although it would indicate that a previous letter had been sent to Herman, he says he never received any other.

Last Monday Dr. Herman's drug store was partly burned. Some one threw a bundle of burning rags through the transom over the front door. He now believes it was the work of the blackmailers.

SUICIDE BY HANGING.

Joseph Poklot, fifty-seven years old, a Bohemian, committed suicide to-day by hanging to a door in his flat, at No. 1335 Avenue A.

MURDER VERDICT BY CORONER'S JURY

Decides that Jose Saviera Killed Stephen Little, Who Was Calling on His Wife—Friends Shake His Hand.

When the Coroner's Jury of Brooklyn returned a verdict to-day that Stephen Little, of No. 51 Cranberry street, met his death at the hand of Jose Saviera, of No. 17 Cranberry street, a demonstration followed. About 100 Spaniards left their seats in the court-room and came forward to grasp the hand of the man whom the Coroner's Jury marked for trial.

On the night of Jan. 23 Saviera came home to find Little in his dining-room. His wife and his twelve-year-old daughter were in the kitchen. Little had been advised to keep away from Saviera's house, but did not take the warning. Saviera drew his revolver, killed Little and then shot his wife. She recovered and was in the court-room to-day.

As Saviera was leaving the court-room, he kissed his daughter. His wife offered her hand to him and he took it, but no word was passed between the two.

UNEEDEA LUNCHEON? "ZU ZU," SAY THE 400

And So They Have It in the New Factory of the Famous Biscuits Where 500 Barrels of Flour Will Be Used Daily.

The National Biscuit Company, which manufactures the famous Uneeda biscuit, opened its new factory at Fifteenth street and Tenth avenue to-day with a luncheon which was attended by 600 guests.

Before the luncheon was served the guests were taken through the big plant and shown how 100 barrels of flour will be used a day in the manufacture of Uneedas and Zuzus.

Among those who accepted invitations to attend the luncheon were Justice Joseph A. O'Brien, Charles E. Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press, James H. McKee, President of the Commercial Bank of Chicago, Brayton Ives, Victor F. Lawson, John R. Walsh, President of the Chicago National Bank, Frank H. Noyes, E. H. Gery, Silas Curran, proprietor of the Home Journal, Henry L. Stoddard, F. W. Ayer, Thomas B. Hubbard and Don C. Galt. An address was made to the diners by A. H. Green, the President of the Board of Directors of the company.

THOMAS L. JAMES AND BRIDE ARRIVE

Former Postmaster-General Married Miss Edith Colburne, Daughter of Mayor of Stratford, in Shakespeare's Church

More than a half hundred friends were at the Cunard pier this afternoon to greet former Postmaster-General Thomas L. James and his recently wedded bride. They arrived on the Campana after a rough and stormy voyage.

Gen. James, who is seventy-three years old, married Miss Edith Colburne, Feb. 3, in the historic Shakespeare's Church at Stratford-on-Avon. She is a daughter of William Gardner Colburne, former Mayor and now Alderman of Stratford.

The marriage attracted special attention because by it Gen. James followed the pattern set by Senators Depew and Platt in taking young brides. Mrs. James is only thirty years old and very youthful looking. She is a typical English gentlewoman and decidedly pretty.

Joseph Poklot, fifty-seven years old, a Bohemian, committed suicide to-day by hanging to a door in his flat, at No. 1335 Avenue A.

WOMAN PERISHES IN STORM.

Falls Exhausted in Snow Drift and Is Found Frozen to Death.

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Charles Fuller was found frozen to death near her home in Rock Garden, when she was overcome while making her way through a storm and fell exhausted in a snow drift.

One of her notable appearances here was at Koster & Bial's, where she sang Kipling's poem, "Pay Day," for the benefit of the wounded British soldiers during the Boer war. It was a question in this city as to whose rendition of the poem was the most humorous, Miss Farrington's or Mrs. Pat Campbell's.

FOOD CURES.

How Physicians Can Cure Even Bright's Disease by Use of Right Food.

A Manitoba trip taught two Michigan women something valuable through a wise physician of Brandon. One of them said:

"I had been so troubled for years with my stomach that I could not eat meat and fruit on the same day, and suffered if I ate anything more than a little stale bread and butter, and was so thin people thought I was going to die."

"I had often seen Grape-Nuts advertised, but had never tried the food until last August my sister went out to Manitoba to visit another sister and learned that our sister's little boy, who is seven years of age, had taken Bright's disease of the kidney, and their family physician gave them no hopes of his recovery."

"His parents then took him to Brandon, twenty miles distant, and the physician there told them he would undertake to cure him if no food but Grape-Nuts were given him, as no other food would agree with his medicine or help to overcome the disease."

"The child has lived entirely on Grape Nuts for one year and a half and is entirely well, a strong, sturdy boy. The visiting sister was in poor health when she went out to Manitoba, but the Grape-Nuts she learned to eat there sent her back home well and strong, and when she came home she told me about them and I got some."

"I learned that I could not only digest the Grape-Nuts perfectly, but if I took a spoonful of Grape-Nuts in my mouth I could take a monthful of potatoes and meat along with it, and everything the Grape-Nuts mixed with in that way I could digest, but not otherwise, and the result was I was soon like a girl of twenty years instead of an old woman. My face got plumper and I know now what joy there is in healthful living."

NINA FARRINGTON A BRIDE IN PARIS

Report Received Here that She Has Been Married to John L. Gordon, of the First Life Guards, of England.

The upper circles of Bohemia in this city were surprised to-day by the cabled announcement of the marriage of Nina Farrington in Paris to John L. Gordon, of the First Life Guards, of England.

Miss Farrington went to London two months ago to fulfill an engagement with George Edwards, who had signed her for a part in "The Orchid." She found the part unsuited to her, and cancelled her contract shortly after her arrival in London. She was then engaged by the management of the Moulin Rouge, Paris, and has since been playing an important part in the new review running there. She is said to have met Gordon in London, and he followed her to Paris.

Nina Farrington is an English girl who came to this country a number of years ago. Her sister, Adela, also an actress, is still here.

Miss Farrington's last engagement in this city was with the Sires at the New Park Theatre, where she appeared in "The Hat of Fame." Her stage appearances have been infrequent of late years, however, owing to the remarkable regularity with which she picked the right side of the mackerel in Wall street.

One of her notable appearances here was at Koster & Bial's, where she sang Kipling's poem, "Pay Day," for the benefit of the wounded British soldiers during the Boer war. It was a question in this city as to whose rendition of the poem was the most humorous, Miss Farrington's or Mrs. Pat Campbell's.

ANOTHER WONDER CURE MADE BY DR. PETTINGILL'S KIDNEY-WORT TABLETS.

20 YEARS OF HOPELESS SUFFERING.

Relieved at Last—and Quickly—by This Great Remedy—Mrs. Barry To-Day—at 75 Years—Feels Young and Well.

For one so old, Mrs. Barry has gone to unusual trouble to put down clearly and plainly the troubles with which she was afflicted before they were lifted from her, almost miraculously, by the blessing of Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets.

MRS. BARRY'S KIDNEY SYMPTOMS.

Diabetes. Bowel Complaint. Debility. Wasting to Skin and Bone. Always Sleepy and Feels Nervous. Food Gave No Benefit. Inflamed Kidneys. Water Troubles.

MRS. BARRY TO-DAY—(75 YEARS OLD).

"As well a woman as any I know. I gained 20 pounds in four months. My system is clear and inflammation is gone. I give the credit to Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets."

Read every word of the letter written by this clear-eyed, healthy, hearty old lady. Whether you are a man or woman, her letter has its message for you:

"New York, Dec. 14, 1903. 324 West 43d Street. "For twenty years or more I have been suffering more or less severely with symptoms of diabetes and kidney trouble. My bowels troubled me very severely and nervousness, and at the time I was entering upon old age I was wasted almost to skin and bone. "I tried them without at first having much hope, as I thought that if my doctor's prescription could not help me, nothing could."

"In a very few days I could see an improvement in my water, the inflammation was very much less, and I continued taking Kidney-Wort until it was all gone. My system gradually cleared itself and I began to get the good of my food. I put on twenty pounds in the last four months, and I think am now as well a woman as any I know. "I give the credit to Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets. No kidney sufferer is so old but that this gentle scientific medicine will benefit them. Aged sufferers are often tempted to try so-called kidney "remedies" in liquid form, not realizing that the liquid (to preserve it) contains ALCOHOL, which acts on kidneys and bladder as a RANK POISON. Beware of Liquid Kidney Remedies. They simply make the Kidney Disease and Diabetes worse.

Dr. Pettingill's Kidney-Wort Tablets contain no alcohol—nothing but the concentrated curative power of mild and gentle vegetable medicaments. For years this prescription has been used with famous success in private practices.

Will You Help A Sick Friend? Get My Book for Him Now.

Which shall I send? Book 1 on Dyspepsia. Book 2 on the Heart. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Book 4 for Women. Book 5 for Men (free). Book 6 on Rheumatism.

Send me no money. Only tell me which book to send. You certainly know of some one who is sick—some sufferer who will be grateful for the help my book offers.

And that book tells of a way to help. Tells of a way so certain that I, as a physician, offer that help on trial. The book tells how for 30 years in hospitals and at bedside I searched for a way to cure deep-seated and difficult diseases. It tells how I perfected my prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. How by scientific experiment I traced out the causes that bring on chronic diseases.

I found invariably that where there was a weakness, the inside nerves were weak. Where there was a lack of vitality the vital nerves lacked power. Where weak organs were found, I always found weak nerves. Not the nerves commonly thought of, but the vital organs' nerves. The inside—the invisible nerves.

This was a revelation. Then my real success began. Then I combined ingredients that would strengthen, that would vitalize, these nerves. That prescription I called a restorative. It is known the world over now as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. After that I did not fail to cure one case in each hundred. In the extremely difficult cases, my failures for five years were one in each forty treated. I found cancer incurable. Cancer is for surgery, not medicine.

Then how to get this prescription to sick ones everywhere was my thought. I must announce it in the public press. But, thought I, will they realize the real truth of my discovery, the real power of Dr. Shoop's Restorative? Then a way came to me—like an inspiration. "I will offer it on trial. They will know I am sincere—that my prescription is unusual."

I wrote a reliable druggist in each city and village in America. They agreed to co-operate with me, now in any sick one.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

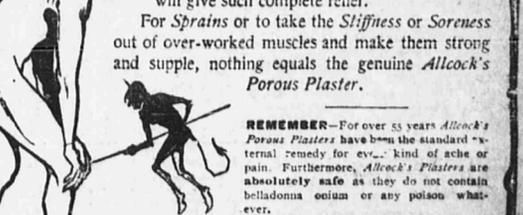

Can be taken at my risk. For a full month I will let you use it entirely at my risk. Send no money. Just write me for the book you need. When I send it I will tell you of a druggist near by who will permit the month's trial. Use the Restorative a month. Then decide. If you say to the druggist, "It did not help me," that will relieve you of any expense whatever. He will bill the cost to me. This is my way of clearing your mind of all doubt as to what Dr. Shoop's Restorative can do. No matter how prejudicial, you cannot dispute this absolute security I offer. You cannot resist an offer like this if you are at all sick. If you have a weakness, write me. If you can't do things like you used to do them, tell me about it. Write in confidence. As a physician I will tell you a way to help.

Get my book now—to-day. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 763, Racine, Wis. Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At druggist's.

RHEUMATISM IN THE JOINTS

The best treatment is to cut an Allcock's Porous Plaster size and shape required and apply to part affected. There's nothing that will give such complete relief.

For Sprains or to take the Stiffness or Soreness out of over-worked muscles and make them strong and supple, nothing equals the genuine Allcock's Porous Plaster.

REMEMBER—For over 55 years Allcock's Porous Plasters have been the standard external remedy for every kind of ache or pain. Furthermore, Allcock's Plasters are absolutely safe as they do not contain belladonna or any other poison whatever.

Always insist on having the genuine. Allcock's POROUS PLASTER
